Student's Steps for Academic Appeal Process:

1. Complete the Informal Appeal Process prior to submitting the Formal Appeal Form and documentation (see Academic Appeal Checklist and Process).
2. Complete this form and attach any documentation/evidence available regarding the academic appeal (please refer to the attached checklist for a list of required and suggested documentation).
3. Within 10 class days of notification of the dean's decision of the informal academic appeal, submit this form to request a formal appeal. Provide the completed checklist as well as all required and supporting documentation to the department chair, and provide a copy to the dean/director of the college (for graduate students, provide a copy to the Graduate School Dean's office).
4. Submit all documents to the Office of the Provost.

I have contacted the department chair and dean, if necessary to determine if an error was made in the determination of my removal from the program. I have been advised by the appropriate individual that no error occurred and, as such, hereby request a formal academic appeal.
